- (c) the Decision has been communicated properly;
- (d) the Decision is compatible with the regulations of World Boxing;
- (e) Extending the sanction does not conflict with public order or with accepted standards of behavior.

35.5 The Chairperson of the Tribunal takes his decision, in principle, without deliberations or orally hearing any of the parties, using only the file.

- 35.6 The Chairperson may exceptionally decide to summon the parties concerned.
- 35.7 The Chairperson is restricted to ascertaining that the conditions of this article have been fulfilled. He may not review the substance of the Decision.
- 35.8 The Chairperson shall either grant or refuse to grant the request to have the sanction extended.
- 35.9 A sanction imposed by a National Federation or a Confederation has the same effect in each National Federation, in each Confederation and in World Boxing itself as if the sanction had been imposed by any one of them.
- 35.10 If a Decision that is not yet final in a legal sense is extended to have worldwide effect, any decision regarding extension shall follow the outcome of the National Federation's current Decision.
- 35.11 Notwithstanding the above, any doping-related legally binding sanction imposed by any National Federation, national anti-doping organization or any other state or sports body that complies with fundamental legal principles shall automatically be recognized and implemented by African Boxing and shall be automatically recognized by all National Federations.

SECTION 6 – ETHICS RULES OF CONDUCT

36. GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF CONDUCT

- 36.1 A Person bound by this Code must comply with the following principles:
- (a) human dignity;
 - (b) non-discrimination, either on the basis of race, gender, nationality, ethnic origin, religion, philosophical or political opinions, sexual preference or any other grounds;
 - (c) nonviolence, including abstaining from any kind of pressure and harassment, whether physical, mental, professional or sexual;
 - (d) friendship, mutual aid and fair play;
 - (e) integrity;
 - (f) transparency;
 - (g) priority to the interests of the sport of boxing and the athletes in relation to financial interests;
 - (h) sustainability;
 - (i) political neutrality;

(j) promotion of the Olympic Movement ideals.

36.2 Any Person bound by this Code shall be aware of the importance of his/her duties to comply with the abovementioned general principles of conduct and other rules of conduct specified in this Code. A Person bound by this Code shall fulfil and exercise his duties and responsibilities diligently, especially with regard to finance-related matters.

36.3 Any Person bound by this Code must refrain from any activity or behavior or any attempted activity or behavior that might give rise to the appearance or suspicion of improper conduct.

37. NEUTRALITY AND LOYALTY

37.1 In dealings with government institutions, National and International Organizations, Associations and groups, any person bound by this Code shall, in addition to observing the basic rules of Article 38, remain politically neutral, in accordance with the principles and objectives of African Boxing and National Federations, and generally act in a manner compatible with their function and integrity.

37.2 Any Person bound by this Code shall have a fiduciary duty to African Boxing and National Federations and its bodies, and shall demonstrate a general loyalty to these organizations.

38. PARTICIPATION IN OTHER INTERNATIONAL BOXING ASSOCIATIONS OR ORGANIZATIONS

An Official of the African Boxing or National Federation cannot hold any position in any other international boxing organization other than WORLD BOXING or a Continental Confederation, or participate in establishment of such international boxing organization, unless the World Boxing Board grants its express approval before such official's appointment or election.

39. CONFIDENTIALITY

39.1 Any Person bound by this Code while discharging or performing his duties shall not divulge any confidential information or secrets within his disposal whatsoever.

39.2 The obligation to respect confidentiality survives the termination of any relationship which makes a person subject to this Code.

40. CONFLICT OF INTERESTS

40.1 Any Person bound by this Code shall comply with the Conflict of Interest Policy of the AfB/World Boxing.

40.2 Any Person bound by this Code shall not perform his duties (in particular, preparing or participating in the taking of a decision) in situations in which an existing or potential conflict of interest might affect such performance. A conflict of interest arises if a Person bound by this Code has, or appears to have, secondary interests that could influence his ability to perform his duties with integrity in an independent and purposeful manner. Secondary interests include, but are not limited to, gaining any possible advantage for the Persons bound by this Code themselves or related parties.

40.3 Before being elected, appointed, employed or contracted, a Person bound by this Code shall disclose any relations and interests that could lead to situations of conflicts of interest in the context of his prospective activities.

40.4 A Person bound by this Code shall not perform his duties (in particular preparing, or participating in, the taking of a decision) in situations in which there is a danger that a conflict of interest might affect such performance. Any such conflict shall be immediately disclosed and notified to the organization for which the Person bound by this Code performs his duties (within WORLD BOXING such notification shall be made to the Tribunal). The relevant organization shall take a decision (within WORLD BOXING such decision shall be taken by the Tribunal) whether a conflict of interest exists and whether it affect performance of the duties of a Person bound by this Code.

41. GIFTS AND OTHER BENEFITS

41.1 A Person bound by this Code May only offer or accept gifts or other benefits to and from persons within or outside World Boxing or AfB, or in conjunction with intermediaries or related parties where such gifts or benefits:

- (a) have symbolic or trivial value;
- (b) are not offered or accepted as a way of influencing persons bound by this Code to execute or omit an act that is related to their official activities or falls within their discretion;
- (c) are not offered or accepted in contravention of the duties of persons bound by this Code;
- (d) do not create any undue pecuniary or other advantage; and
- (e) do not create a conflict of interest

41.2 Any gifts or other benefits not meeting all of these criteria are prohibited.

41.3 If in doubt, gifts or other benefits shall not be accepted, given, offered, promised, received, requested or solicited. In all cases, persons bound by this Code shall not accept, give, offer, promise, receive, request or solicit from anyone within or outside World Boxing, or in conjunction with intermediaries or related parties as defined in this Code, cash in any amount or form. If declining the gift or benefit would offend the giver on the grounds of cultural norms, persons bound by this Code may accept the gift or benefit on behalf of their respective organization and shall report it and hand it over, where applicable, immediately thereafter to the competent body.

42. COMMISSION

Unless covered by a genuine commercial agreement, a Person bound by this Code shall not accept, give, offer, promise, receive, request or solicit commission for themselves or third parties for negotiating deals or conducting other business in connection with his duties.

43. ABUSE OF POSITION

A Person bound by this Code shall not abuse his position in any way, especially to take advantage of his position for his private aims or gains or private aims or gains of related parties.

44. BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION

44.1 A Person bound by this Code shall not accept, give, offer, promise, receive, request or solicit any personal or undue pecuniary or other advantage in order to obtain or retain business or any other improper advantage to or from anyone. Such acts are prohibited regardless of whether carried out directly or indirectly through, or in conjunction with, third parties. In particular, a person bound by this Code shall not accept, give, offer, promise, receive, request or solicit any personal or undue pecuniary or other advantage for the execution or omission of an act that is related to his official activities and is contrary to his duties or falls within his discretion.

44.2 A Person bound by this Code shall refrain from any activity or behavior that might give rise to the appearance or suspicion of a breach of this Article.

45. MISAPPROPRIATION AND MISUSE OF FUNDS

45.1 Any Person bound by this Code shall not misappropriate or misuse funds of the African Boxing and National Federations, whether directly or indirectly through, or in conjunction with, third parties.

45.2 A Person bound by this Code shall refrain from any activity or behavior that might give rise to the appearance or suspicion of a breach of this Article.

46. INAPPROPRIATE REPRESENTATION

A Person who represents African Boxing or National Federation in an outside body shall be obliged to intervene and to vote in accordance with any instructions that they have received from the competent authority of the organization he represents. Such Person shall not accept any instructions as to how to vote from any third-party.

47. DISCRIMINATION AND DEFAMATION OUTSIDE COMPETITION

47.1 A Person bound by this Code shall not offend the dignity or integrity of a country, private person or group of people through contemptuous, discriminatory or denigrator words or actions on account of race, skin color, ethnicity, nationality, social origin, gender, disability, language, religion, political opinion or any other opinion, wealth, birth or any other status, sexual orientation or any other reason.

47.2 A Person bound by this Code is forbidden from making any public statements of a defamatory nature towards the AfB, National Federations and/or towards any other person bound by this Code.

48. BETTING AND SIMILAR ACTIVITIES

48.1 A Person bound by this Code shall be forbidden from participating in, either directly or indirectly, betting or similar activities (excluding lotteries etc.) related to boxing matches or competitions and/or any related boxing activities.

48.2 A Person bound by this Code shall not have any interests, either directly or indirectly (through or in conjunction with third parties), in entities, companies, organizations, etc. that promote, broker, arrange or conduct betting or similar activities as specified the above connected with boxing matches and competitions. Interests include gaining any possible advantage for the persons bound by this Code themselves and/or related parties.

SECTION 7 – FINAL PROVISIONS

49. ADOPTION, ENFORCEMENT AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

49.1 This Code is adopted by the Board on 09 May 2026 and comes into force immediately.

49.2 This Code applies to any Disciplinary or Ethics proceedings which have been formally opened after the date when this Code came into force. Any offence shall be governed by the substantive rules in force on the date of which the offence has been committed, unless the principle of lex mitior applies (implying that this Code is more favorable to the offender than prior regulations). Procedural rules, including rules governing the authority of the Tribunal shall apply as of the entry into force of this Code and shall apply immediately, no matter when the offence has been committed. Disciplinary and Ethics proceedings which have been formally opened before the date when this Code came into force shall be concluded according to the previous edition of the Code.
